Reflection

In our Second Reading we hear the words 'If God is for us, who can be against us? This may, at first, seem fairly obvious. Of course God is 'for' us, cheering us on, as it were; encouraging us through life's journey. And yet, this is not everyone's image of God. Too many times we imagine God to be an authority figure who lays down rules and regulations which are impossible to keep, who then waits for us to slip up. It's good, then, to remind ourselves that, instead, our God loves and supports us infinitely and wants nothing more than our flourishing.

'Creation is not a property, which we can rule over at will; or, even less, is the property of only a few: Creation is a gift, it is a wonderful gift that God has given us, so that we care for it and we use it for the benefit of all' - Pope Francis
