Trust in God.

Once a Knight was about to set out on a long journey. He tried to foresee all the possible problems and dangers he was likely to encounter, and to take precautions against them. He took a sword and suit of armour in case he met an enemy. He took a jar of ointment to guard against sunburn. He took an axe to chop wood for a fire at night. He took a tent and several blankets. He took pots and pans for cooking. And of course he took a sackful of oats for his horse. Thus heavily laden, he set forth.

However, he hadn't gone very far when he came to a rickety old bridge, which straddled a deep gorge. He was only halfway across when the bridge collapsed under him, and he fell into the gorge and got killed.

When Jesus sent out the Apostles he urged them to place complete trust in God. They were to travel light, taking with them only the essentials. God would take care of his Workers.
